WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE POOR FARMER.

Too poor to take a paper,
Too poor to join the Grange;
So when the price was rising
He did not know the change,
And sold his wheat for a dollar—
'Twas worth a quarter more;
And now the man is poorer
Than he had been before.

His neighbor Lookout told him,
This side of the market town,
He should have come in sooner
While groceries were down.
While then, perhaps, 'tis even,
Since corn is on the rise,
And what you gain by waiting
Will pay for your supplies."

"Corn rising? Why, I sold it!
The chap who bought my wheat
Said this year corn was plenty,
But mine was hard to beat;
So he paid me three shillings—
What! everywhere 'tis four?
The difference would give me
A hundred dollars or more."

He drew his reins and started,
With spirits sadly down,
And did a heap of thinking
Before he reached the town.
The upshot of the matter
You easily may guess—
This year he takes two papers,
And couldn't do with less.

PRICES THAT TALK

We have just made an important purchase which enables us to sell

$1 WILTON VELVETS AT 75c and 75c BRUSSELS AT 59c.

The Carpets are first class in every way—quality, pattern, color—they are in satisfying quantity to make selection easy and the prices do their own talking of economy. Saving 25c on one yard of velvet carpet seems little but in the aggregate—say on twenty-five yards, $6.25 is a sum worth considering. Our Window Display gives some idea of these unusual carpet values as to quality, but you must see the whole stock to correctly judge the quantity.

Don't be content to read of this offer. Come in, examine, scrutinize, compare, make any test the shrewdest shopper can devise. The better your knowledge of carpets, the fuller your appreciation of the remarkable lowness of the price on these. In the assortment you will find special hall, stair, parlor and library patterns, many with match border. Seeing an article is more convincing than reading about it. Call on us. It is not an every day chance to find

In the event that CALEB POWERS should be attacked by that terrible "Habeas Corpus Cum Causa," the Goebelite Doctors would be Powerless.

WITH the collection last year of $2,022-498.31 in excess of its losses in Kentucky, it's about time for the Fire Insurance Trust to make another raise in rates.

If the Powers Case should be transferred to the United States Court, the whole bottom would drop out of the Goebelite Democracy, as CALEB POWERS has for five years been their only stock in trade.

If Judge PARKER at Lexington could find enough law to turn HARGIS loose, it looks like Judge COCHRAN at London ought to find enough law to admit CALEB POWERS to bail—especially as the Court of Appeals has three times said that he was not properly convicted of the charges against him.

THE LEDGER ventures no prediction as to the outcome of the effort to transfer the Powers Case to the Federal Court; it will be decided according to the law and the facts—of that you may be assured;—but it does look like such lawyers as ex-Governor YATES of Illinois and ex-Governor BLACK of New York would not formulate and present a petition for removal from the state to the Federal Court unless they were reasonably sure of their grounds.

It may be necessary to have a "Habeas Corpus Cum Causa" to get CALEB POWERS out of the clutches of the Goebelites; but a Federal Court would run no risk in naming a day for his trial and dismissing him on his own recognition.

AMBASSADOR CHOATE has cabled the State Department that the British Foreign Office has refused to grant any further clemency to Mrs. FLORENCE E. MAYBRICK, who recently made application through the State Department at Washington for a complete pardon. Mrs. MAYBRICK was not granted a complete pardon, but was released from imprisonment on certain conditions, and she still is technically under sentence.

ALTHOUGH The Courier-Journal stoutly contends that its contemporaries are constantly misrepresenting the Louisville authorities by saying that it is a corrupt city, that paper on Tuesday contained a record of fifteen indictments found by the Grand Jury against the election officers in a single Precinct of one Ward. It would be hard to guess the number the Grand Jury would have found if it had covered the entire city.

Political Pickings

BIRDS OF THE SAME FEATHER.

Midway Clipper, Democratic.

The paramount duty of the Democratic party in Kentucky now is to assemble in mass convention and read the riot act to Hargis, Callahan and McQuown. They should be forever banished from the councils of the party. Some respect was once held for Mr. McQuown, the present Chairman of the Executive Committee, but when he allied himself with the Hargises, to defend them, he put himself beyond the pale of popular respect. It may be argued that as a lawyer he has a right to defend whom he will. Not so in this case. He had no right, in view of his position in the party councils, to thus become entangled in the meshes of these feud leaders. Hargis knew he would paralyze the influence of the party leaders by getting the Chairman under his influence. Mr. McQuown may be a good lawyer, but he seems to have succumbed to the Hargis spell. Oh, the shame of it!

A MATTER OF HEALTH

The Coroner is of opinion that Police Judge Pence of Covington killed himself accidentally.

NARROW ESCAPE

Little Son of Mr. C. E. Choate Knocked Down by Streetcar

At Atlanta, Ga., a few days ago the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Choate had a very narrow escape from instant death.

While standing on the street with his mother the child wandered away from her and ran in front of a streetcar.

Mrs. Choate presently saw the danger of her little one and her cries drew the motorman's attention, who reversed the lever and put on the brakes.

The child was knocked down, but the car was stopped just before the wheels reached him. Luckily, the little fellow escaped with only slight bruises.

Mrs. Choate was formerly Miss Agnes Dodson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Dodson of West Fourth street, and her many friends here will rejoice with her on the fortunate outcome of a possible serious accident.

BOOK COMPANY BONDS

How Superintendent Wells "Won Out" For Mason County Schools

Bonds given by book companies to the state of Kentucky relating to the prices of their publications can only be sued on at the instance and discretion of the County Superintendent of Schools, and no one else.

The Fiscal Court has no authority to direct or prevent his action in such matters. Recoveries on such bonds do not go to the County Treasurer, subject to control or disposal by the Fiscal Court, as do county funds, but like all other school monies, directly to the County Superintendent for distribution by him under statute law.

Having a right to bring such an action, Superintendent Wells recovered of the American Book Company could have been brought in any one of the seventy-five or more counties of the state using their books.

Attorney C. Burgess Taylor had learned of certain violations of their bond by this Company, and Superintendent Wells entered into contract to pay him 50% of any recovery thereon. In event of no recovery there was no means of paying any costs, expenses or attorney's fees, and Mr. Taylor would be left with the bag to hold.

Had not Mr. Wells made such contract suit would have been brought in and for the benefit of another county.

Attorney Taylor employed assistant counsel, and Mason County's School Fund gets the net benefit.

County Attorney O'Donnell contends that the Fiscal Court, and not the County Superintendent, was the proper party to employ lawyers and make the contract in this matter, but in other respects approves of the action of the Superintendent.

This is the only successful suit as yet on any of these bonds. The suit in another county against Given & Co., started some six years ago, has been to the Court of Appeals several times, with no results as yet.

This same American Book Company bond was sued on by the County Superintendent of Kenton county and that case reached the Court of Appeals before the Wells suit did and was lost because of the failure of sufficient evidence, and in this way Mason won.

County Attorney O'Donnell, under a contract with the Fiscal Court, some years ago received 50% back franchise taxes recovered. No other county could have shut Mason out as to these taxes. In the Book Company case nearly a hundred counties had a chance to beat her out, and the case at best was a long chance one.

How to Ward Off Old Age.

The most successful way of warding off the approach of old age is to maintain a vigorous digestion. This can be done by eating only food suited to your age and occupation, and when any disorder of the stomach appears take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct it. If you have a weak stomach, or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these Tablets to be just what you need. For sale by all Druggists.

HIGHEST PRAISE.

Some Maysville Citizens Grow Enthusiastic on the Subject.

The praise of the public is merit's just reward. Nothing in modern times has received the praise accorded "The Little Conqueror."

Of some kinds of praise we are skeptical. We doubt the praise of strangers. The highest praise for Maysville public is hearty expression from Maysville people. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed in Maysville. No better proof of merit can be had. Here's a case of it. We have plenty more like it.

James D. Tolle, clerk at Wood Bros. meat market, and living at 117 Short St., Maysville, Ky., says:

"I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened and passages of the secretions were too frequent, and there was a scalding, burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and finding great benefit, continued the treatment until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others." Plenty more proof like this from Maysville people. Call at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Captain Ed Howard has contracted to build another steel double-hulled ferryboat for Capt. Alex. Halliday of New Orleans. He has just completed a fine one for him.

Chairman Theodore Burton of the Rivers and Harbors Committee does not favor the Committee being banqueted at the various ports. The Congressional Committee spent Tuesday visiting Pittsburgh's industries.

Captain M. Shriver of the steamer Courier says that John Campbell, cook on his boat, did not go mad through use of cigarettes, but believes his condition was caused by excessive heat. He also says that Campbell did not attempt to use a razor on the roustabouts.

There are ninety empty barges, forty-three boats and twelve flats at Louisville waiting to be towed to Pittsburgh. The Iron Age, with the big barges Louisville and Allegheny loaded with sugar and molasses, a barge of lumber, Price's towboat and showboat, twelve empty coalboats and five empty barges, is on her way North from the South.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by all Druggists.

COMBINATION SALE

May 24th, 1905.

CHAPTER II.

"The Mill Will Never Grind With the Water That is Past."

In Chapter I, contained in Monday's issue of this paper, I had something to say with reference to the amount of real estate which has changed hands in the city of Maysville during the past twelve months. While that is very gratifying to me and to others, we cannot afford to be content with the results heretofore achieved. Past success gives us new courage for future effort. I now bespeak your help in making my second COMBINATION SALE a great success. Let us see to it that more property is sold on that day and better prices realized than at the previous sale. I have some very attractive property which will be offered at that time. The minimum prices which I have should be an assurance that this property will find ready purchasers. On May 24th I am going to provide free transportation for all the adults who will take advantage of this opportunity to buy something that will yield them sure returns in the near future. A brass band of about ten pieces will furnish good music, and one of the best Auctioneers in the United States will entertain those who attend.

Below is a partial list of property that will be offered—

The E. Martin property, corner Second and Limestone streets; lot 66x132.

One lot in Riverview Terrace, 75 feet front, extending back same width from Second to Third streets.

A vacant lot in East Fourth street, adjoining William Lundrigan.

Five lots in Maysville Real Estate Subdivision.

John J. Cobb's dwelling in East Forest avenue.

Jeff D. Easton's frame house in West Third street.

William Davis's residence in West Second street; lot fronts 66 feet on Second street and extends back to Third street.

M. J. McCarthy's two-story frame house on German town pike.

The Samuel Smith homestead, West Third street.

Yours truly,

John Duley

MR. HENRY W. RAY

Re-Elected Great Chief of Records of Kentucky Redmen

The eleventh annual Great Council of Kentucky, Improved Order of Redmen, has been in session at Frankfort this week, and at the business session Tuesday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year—

Great Senior Sagamore—D. H. Russell, Louisville.

Great Junior Sagamore—R. Lee Page, Louisville.

Great Chief of Records—Henry W. Ray, Maysville.

Great Keeper of Wampum—S. C. Moore, Louisville.

Great Prophet—H. H. Denhardt, Bowling Green.

Delegates to the Great Council of the United States at Nashville—H. H. Denhardt, M. B. Wallestein, W. A. Croder, Dr. Buschmeyer, Gus A. Ellerkamp.

The visiting Redmen were so royally welcomed by the Frankfort Tribe and the citizens generally of the state Capital, and were so well pleased with their reception that they did the unusual thing, gave that city the next annual meeting of the Council over several rival towns of the state.

GIVE HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.
